6 CHIC SEAT The Pillow Talk love seat, $8,500, melds sophistication with comfort. Designed and handmade by Susan Woods of Aswoon, the bent poplar plywood piece is the latest addition to the New Wave Line collection.

7 DISH IT OUT Hand-thrown and hand-glazed, this porcelain dinnerware from Lois Ruben Aronow, $175 for a four-piece setting, has a crackle finish available in a variety of colors that can be mixed and matched. Other coordinating pieces include platters and dessert plates.

9 NATURAL LIGHT Ed from Andrea Claire Lighting, $320, is a snapshot of nature. An image taken by the artist of Florida's Everglades National Park is laminated to celadon-colored linen, serving as the backdrop of the hanging lampshade.

8 DRESS UP Balancing light and dark, this custom-made dresser, $5,200, features curly maple with mahogany legs and drawer pulls. Designed by Robert Shapiro for Balsera Woodworks, the piece incorporates top drawers suitable for jewelry storage as well as a hidden compartment.

11 SWEET DREAMS Inspired by designer Bruno Mathsson's use of hemp webbing, the 1x3 bed from Uhuru Design + Build, $5,100, has a steel-tube base upon which two-inch cotton webbing is woven to form a platform and headboard. It is available in a blackened-steel or powder-coated finish.

10 CUSHION COUTURE Soft and luxurious, the custom decorative pillows from Aviva Stanoff Design, $275 each, are crafted from velvet that is crushed with real botanicals, feathers and lace. Each 20-inch by 20-inch pillow is hand-dyed as well as hand-painted.
